President's Desk

SHRI. KIRAN SONTAKKE,

Dnyansadhana Pratisthan Educational Institution's, Parbhani

With the prior experience of 21 years in the field of education, we started our journey in the field of Pharmacy education in 2016 as Dnyansadhana Institute of Pharmacy (DIOP) and in 2018 as Dnyansadhana College of Pharmacy (DCOP), affiliated to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Technological University (DBATU), Lonere. Our pharmacy colleges are one of the leading colleges in Parbhani district of Maharashtra state. At our pharmacy colleges we strive to attain excellence by innovation. This is achieved by working on academics in a dedicated manner as well as encouraging sports and cultural activities to create a dynamic educational environment. During this post GATT era there is severe competition and demand of high quality standard drugs and pharmaceuticals. Introduction of new generation of drugs and emerging biotechnological methods for the production of extremely efficacious drugs. Increased understanding of etiology of diseases due to advances in biology, immunology and microbiology have lead to the development of ultra-sensitive and rapid diagnostic aids and tools. The availability of sophisticated biomedical equipments and instruments for diagnosis and new technologies and devices for the effective treatment of diseases has accelerated healthcare. Such rapid advances demand greater responsibility from pharmacists working in hospitals and community. For which we strive to impart practical oriented pharmaceutical education at our group of pharmacy colleges. In this era of rapid changes, pharmacy educational institutions, Universities, Govt. regulatory bodies (DBATU, PCI, MSBTE and DTE of Maharashtra) in tandem with the pharmaceutical and healthcare industry must analyze and understand the situation and work together with newer vision and goals for creating state-of-the-art of pharmacy education in India. This would require a well-designed curriculum and syllabus, resource identification, faculty development and student selection.
